

Privacy Act Statement. Every registration statement, short form registration statement, supplemental statement, exhibit, amendment, dissemination report, copy of political propaganda or other document or information filed with the Attorney General under this act is a public record open to public examination, inspection and copying during the posted business hours of the Registration Unit in Washington, D.C. One copy is automatically provided to the Secretary of State pursuant to Section 6(b) of the Act, and copies of such documents are routinely made available to other agencies, departments and Congress pursuant to Section 6(c) of the Act. Finally, the Attorney General transmits an annual report to the Congress on the Administration of the Act which lists the names of all agents and the nature, sources and content of the political propaganda disseminated or distributed by them. This report is available to the public.

Public Reporting Burden. Public reporting burden for this collection of information is estimated to average 1.5 hours per response, including the time for reviewing instructions, searching existing data sources, gathering and maintaining the data needed, and completing and reviewing the collection of information. Send comments regarding this burden estimate or any other aspect of this collection of information, including suggestions for reducing this burden to Chief, Registration Unit, Criminal Division, U.S. Department of Justice, Washington, D.C. 20530; and to the Office of Information and Regulatory Affairs, Office of Management and Budget, Washington, D.C. 20503.

On April 9, 1996, Preston Gates Ellis & Rouvelas Meeds submitted its supplemental statement for the six-month reporting period between September 9, 1995 and March 9, 1996. Question 8 of the supplemental statement states: "Has your connection with any foreign principal ended during the six month reporting period?" On the April 9th filing, Preston Gates answered in the negative.

The correct information should have reflected that the firm's relationship with the Government of Montenegro and/or its representatives ended on April 1, 1996. At the present time, Preston Gates Ellis & Rouvelas Meeds does not represent the Government of Montenegro, its elected officials, retained representatives, or the interests of any Montenegrin nationals.
